

The National Police has benefited from a new support from DCAF and the Sweden Embassy.

National Police received a lot of IT equipment, offered by the Geneva Center for the Government of the Security Sector (DCAF) and the Sweden Embassy in the Republic of Moldova. will be used in daily activities, contributing to the digitization and efficiency of the work of colleagues in the field.

